D.I.M. 2 IPA

If you visit the Pacific Northwest, there's a very good chance that you'll try an IPA. They've been an integral part of the beer scene and come in many hopped varieties. Some have asked, "Does It Matter what the name of the IPA is? As long as there's hops right?" This is the second version of D.I.M. IPA, with a pronounced hop character. Floral and tropical aromas give way to a mid-range flavor that combines lemon with slightly piney notes. The final bitterness combines all the floral, citrus and earthy flavors you'd expect from an IPA. So you be the judge! Does it fit the bill of a good IPA? Does It Matter what we call it?

Special Techniques: Dry-Hopped with Centennial Hops

Malts: Pale, Briess Victory, Caramel Munich 40, Caramel Vienna

Hops: Chinook, Brewer's Gold, Centennial, Flaconer's Flight

OG: 1.063 TG: 1.015 ABV: 6.20 IBU: 70 SRM: 7
